"When we were utterly foolish, Christ died for us so that we might be saved and that He might bring us to Himself. He made Himself weak for our sake, becoming obedient to death, even death on a cross. He was crucified for us, to redeem us from all iniquity and to purify Himself for Himself, that He might bring us to Himself. He died for us, that He might purify to Himself a peculiar people, zealous of good deeds."

"When we were utterly helpless, Christ... just the right time and died for us sinners... most people would not be willing to die for an upright person, though someone might perhaps be willing to die for a person who is especially good. But God showed his great love for us by sending Christ to die for us while we were still sinners."
